

Kansas City Pediatric Cardiology Associates Notice of Privacy Practices

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record
- Correct your paper or electronic medical record
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act on your behalf
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

Your Choices

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Tell family and friends about your condition
- Provide disaster relief
- Provide mental health care
- Market our services and sell your information
- Raise funds

Our Uses and Disclosures

We may use and share your information as we:

- Treat you
- Run our organization
- Bill for your services
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Do research
- Comply with the law
- Respond to organ and tissue donation requests
- Work with a medical examiner or funeral director
- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some our responsibilities to help you.

- Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record
 - You can ask to see or get electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
 - We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.
- Ask us to correct your medical record
 - You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
 - We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Your Rights cont.

- Request confidential communications
 - You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
 - We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests
- Ask us to limit what we use or share
 - You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.
 - If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared information
 - You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with and why.
 - We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We will provide one accounting per year free of charge but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another copy within 12 months of the original request.
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
 - We will provide you with a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically.
- Choose someone to act on your behalf
 - If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
 - We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
- File a complaint if you feel your rights have been violated
 - You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information of page 1.
 - You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
 - We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

- In these case, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:
 - Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
 - Share information in a disaster relief situation
 - Include your information in a hospital directory

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

- In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:
 - Marketing purpose
 - Sale of your information
 - Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

Your Choices contd.

- In the case of fundraising:
 - We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways:

- Treat you
 - We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.
Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.
- Run our organization
 - We can use and share your health information to run our practice improve your care, and contact you when necessary.
Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services
- Bill for your services
 - We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment form health plans or other entities.
Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information go to:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html

Help with public health and safety issues.

- We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:
 - Preventing disease
 - Helping with product recalls
 - Reporting adverse reactions to medications
 - Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
 - Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Do research

- We can use or share your information for health research

Comply with the law

- We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including the Department of Health and Human Services if they want to see that we are complying with federal privacy laws.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests

- We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

- We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Our Uses and Disclosures contd.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

- We can use or share health information about you:
 - For workers' compensation claims
 - For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
 - With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
 - For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

- We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind

For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html

Changes to the Terms of this Notice

- We may change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request in our office and on our web site.

Other Information to Note

- Effective Date of this notice is 02/01/2014
- Questions about our policy? Call our office (816) 584-0505
- We never market or sell personal information
- Our patient portal is compliant with the 2014 Meaningful use requirements, and in fact our Electronic Health Record system (EHR) has been tested and certified as a Complete EHR that supports both Stage 1 and Stage 2 Meaningful Use measures. This means that your information is secure, and that when you use our patient portal every effort has been made to assure your privacy and confidentiality.

Kansas City Pediatric Cardiology Associates

Office Financial Policy

We would like to thank you for choosing Kansas City Pediatric Cardiology. As one of our patients, we would like to keep you informed of our current office and financial policies. We require a signature to document that you have read and understand these policies.

Payment

- Payment is expected at the time of service. This is an insurance company rule. This includes co-payments participating insurance companies. Kansas City Pediatric Cardiology, accepts cash, personal checks, most major credit cards. There is a service charge of $25 for returned checks.
- Patients with an outstanding balance more than 90 days overdue must make arrangements for payment prior to scheduling appointments. Parents are ultimately responsible for any charges or portion thereof for which payment is denied by insurance for whatever reason, except where prohibited by law or prior contractual agreement.

Insurance

- It is the patient's responsibility to provide us with current insurance information and to present an active insurance card at each visit.

Referrals

- If your plan requires, you may need to receive a referral from your primary care physician. It is your responsibility to obtain this referral if it is required by your insurance company.

Canceled Appointments

- If you are unable to keep your scheduled appointment, please call our office 24 hours before your appointment to reschedule. This will allow time to provide that time slot to another patient.
- We reserve the right to charge $25 for appointments that are not canceled at least 24 hours in advance.

Past Due Accounts

- If we have to turn your account over to collection for non-payment, you will be charged $25, in addition to the outstanding balance from the date your bill was due, and you will be responsible for all costs and expenses of collection including, but not limited to our reasonable attorneys' fees.

More Information

- Please call our billing office at (816) 584-0505 if you have a question about your bill. Most problems can be settled quickly and easily, and your call will prevent any misunderstandings.
- If you are having trouble paying your bill, please discuss the situation with us. Satisfactory arrangements can almost always be made.
- Financial considerations should never prevent children from receiving the care they need at the time they need it.